APC PTEL2 acondicionador de línea Beige:

Protección avanzada contra corrientes transitorias perjudiciales que viajan por líneas de ordenadores, AV y datos de red

Los componentes de SurgeArrest, como los MOV y fusibles térmicos, garantizan una respuesta inmediata a las descargas eléctricas y averías del cableado. Si los componentes de la unidad resultan dañados por picos de corriente o sobretensiones, el exceso de electricidad no llega a los equipos. A diferencia de los productos SurgeArrest de APC, la mayoría de los supresores de sobretensiones continúan permitiendo el paso de corriente incluso cuando los circuitos han resultado dañados, por lo que los equipos quedan expuestos a otras sobretensiones perjudiciales.
